The Use of Prottran

Question: What is Prottran used for in ChemoCare?

Answer: Prottran is intended to be used as a tool to import new protocols and their associated cycles from other ChemoCare users’ system or your reference database. It can also be used for copying a protocol within the same system providing the intention is NOT to update the cycle details. If you wish to update cycles detail you must use the edit cycle functionality.